

Fifty under 40 2016

What does it take to be at the top of your game before you turn 40? Weeding through hundreds of submissions from sources throughout the country, REAL ESTATE FORUM selected the 50 best-in-class young commercial real estate executives for our annual roster of up-and-coming leaders. From the best managers to the hardest workers to the most creative and innovative problem solvers, we bring you the cream of the crop in the under-40 category.

By Carrie Rossenfeld

MITCH PASKOVER

President
Continental Funding Group
Los Angeles

As president of Continental Funding, Mitch Paskover originates debt and equity transactions for his national client base across all major commercial product types. This includes structuring permanent, bridge, mezzanine and construction loans as well as joint venture equity, providing optimal capital solutions on behalf of his sponsors. Paskover also oversees the strategic direction and day-to-day operations of the firm. His recruitment and deployment of new team members, combined with his effective implementation of the firm's core values, have been instrumental to the success and growth of the company. Paskover approaches each deal not just as a transaction, but as an opportunity to provide best-in-class service on behalf of his clients.

creative solutions for real estate advisory services, maximizing sales proceeds while maintaining a set timeline. His primary focus is to grow revenue for the CBRE net-lease property group, a select team of senior-level capital-markets professionals specializing in the sale, purchase and recapitalization of single-tenant net leased properties globally. A dedicated professional, Pike is known for allocating much of his time, energy and expertise to building, maintaining and improving the firm's capital markets practice.